First to Last-the Truth: News - Editorials - Advertisements SUNDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1915.—EIGHT PARTS—EIGHTY PAGES.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

ENVOYS WON TO CARRANZA

pledges Lacking, Yet Conference Agrees on Recognition.

U. S. MAY ACT IN ONE WEEK

First Chief Had Blocked Proposal for Peace Among the Factions.

ts plan for the pacification of Mexto by agreement among the factions here to-day decided to recommend gat recognition be granted to the me man who had blocked that plan -Venustiano Carranza. They are orging this recognition, it was adsitted after the conference, in spite of the fact that no guarantees have been received from Carranza on most of the points which, it has been belared, must be assured before recquition would be justified, and with mly partial assurances on the other onference is unanimous, and Secreury of State Lansing said after it est other American states, not repmented, had been sounded and fadetaily committed to the recogni- thing approaching that distance.

sti would not" interfere in political from the finish.

occessions granted to them, and the

to interest, much to ammze, much to satisfy, but with little to catch the she ready with Carranga until he has been megnized. It is understood, however, that immediately following the recognising the United States will press bless also and a sharp of the skilled hands of those daring drivers as tood between a spectacle and a sharp of the skilled hands of those daring drivers as tood between a spectacle and a sharp of the skilled hands of those daring drivers as tood between a spectacle and a sharp of the skilled hands of these daring drivers as tood between a spectacle and a sharp of the skilled hands of these daring drivers as tood between a spectacle and a sharp of the skilled hands of these daring drivers as tood between a spectacle and a sharp of the skilled hands of these daring drivers as tood between a spectacle and a sharp of the skilled hands of these daring drivers as tood between a spectacle and a sharp of the skilled hands of th Calms totalling $150,000,000 were ation the United States will press bles. and for the nations of Europe, and inest spon an acknowledgment of reconsibility. While, therefore, recog-Mion will act in one sense to end armona's troubles, other difficulties barked, but did not bite, and, unfortunate though it may be, a little bite would have been relished by the speed-accessful of President Wilson's resal investigators of conditions in acce, is prominently mentioned. It a cought possible that the appointo, is prominently mentioned. It ought possible that the appoint-will be delayed for several satisc. The ambassador receives a wary of $17,500, and, as Carrana is loc of simplicity, the appointee would be accessarily be a man of independent states.

injustice. Say Villa Men.

Injustice. Say Villa Men.

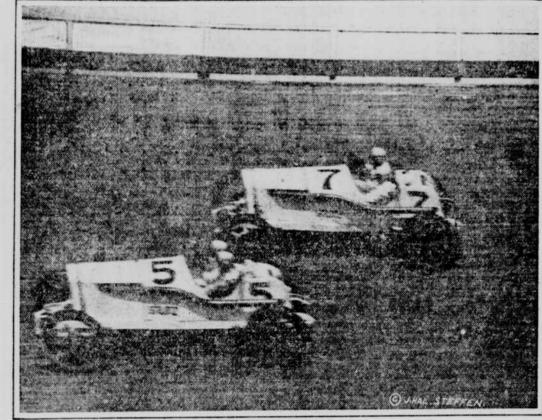

Injustice of General Villa the crowd was so big: it was so scattered.

Only Eight Cars at Finish.

Twenty cars rushed off in the first will dash; eight cars were running wi ubington, fecently arrived in at the project would be carried out.

Centinged on page 10, column 2

PAN-AMERICAN Anderson Wins Astor Cup Driving 102 Miles an Hour

Gil Anderson, winner of the Astor Cup Race, leading, and Tom Rooney, who finished second, tearing around one end of the two-mile ellipse at Sheepshead Bay at hurricane speed. The turns are the most steeply pitched of any similar track in America and the racing cars took them at the same speed as on the less banked sides

The recognition is expected to be More than 70,000 See All goen promptly. The action of the Records Smashed in 350 Mile Auto Race at

New Speedway. By HERBERT.

set is acting individually, and the clear-eyed, whirled his Stutz car over of the conference has no bind- 350 miles on the gigantic Sheepshead sted are all understood to be un- than man has ever travelled at any-

Driving at an average rate of 102.60 motorist's dream of two miles a min ams the attitude of the other con- voured the laps as they sped by and mence governments, though its ac- covered the distance in 3 hours 24 min

Cup and won for himself $20,000 of the $50,000 purse, while more than ration of the facts, have found that looked on and applicated his amazing Bay State Liner Tennessee Calls but would be a general amnesty of tred, not, however, to include the opmigious bodies could return to their limits with full protection and liberty at would not "interfere in political

Bob Burman of the place and of $5,000
the Bay State Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S. O. S.

The state Line, sent out an S.

The previous record for 350 miles other matters, such as the payment was established by Dario Resta over the Chicago Speedway last June, when SHOOTS FATHER breigners, the holding of fair elec- he set up 3 hours 35 minutes 25 secins, the protection of foreigners and onds, at the rate of 97.47 miles an hour

No Accidents Mar Race. mility to maintain order had not been There were no whirling charlots Unnerved by Sight of Quarrel. misidered, he said, as part of them afire, no twisted, misshapen wrecks, mild not be discussed with any but a setablished government, and others the matters of internal concern, in thich outsiders could not interfere.

Claims Must Be Paid.

All parts of the discussed with any but a crushed limbs, and so it seemed that the vast throng, without admitting the reason therefor, was disappointed. They waited in vain through close to four hours for the thrills which thousands wittingly and other thousands and wittingly and other thousands.

the United States will press bles. No gatling gun ever boded but claims, both on its own behalf graver disaster than those crackling He sericary Lansing has not yet deterand upon the manner of notifying dranza that his government has been sequined. It may be done by cable first to the First Chief from Washarea, or he may be notified through for, or he may be notified through for or world's series atruggle mane for the world's series atruggle mane more of an impression. The eye failed to grasp the wonder of so many peoto grasp the wonder of so many peothrills to arouse bursts of enthusiasm or spontaneous roars such as are experienced at gatherings for football, baseball and racing.

The grandstand, seating 35,000 persons, was far from jammed. The bleachers, fully half a mile away, and seemingly apart from the inclosure, were not bulging. The officials said that 8,000 cars were parked in the infield and it looked it. They made a wonderfully impressive showing and surely accounted for 30,000 of the 100,000 which the management insisted was on hand. It was hard to conceive that the crowd was so big; it was so scattle last off year.

Continued on page 8, column 1

THE RING, NOT INSCRIBED

3 DEAF SISTERS

CAPTURE ROBBER

line — Youngest, Fifty,

Fires Shotgun.

The engagement ring given Mrs Galt by the President is a single diamond, weighing slightly more than two carats, set in platinum. It is one of several submitted to the Regis by a representative of Dreicer & Co., of Fifth Avenue. So far it has not been inscribed.

Whether or not it will be inscribed only the giver and the recipient know. On this point The Tribune's Washington Bureau wired last

About that ring. Only Mr. Wilson and Mrs. Galt know, and they are not telling."

SOUND STEAMER IN COLLISION

for Help Off New London.

Girl. 13. Kills Croton

Contractor.

Unable to endure the sight of her mother being beaten and choked, Eva Tuste on attempt to stop her street mother being beaten and choked. Eva Tice, thirteen years old, daughter of a Croton contractor, ran into her father's room lant night, took a revolver, which a she supposed was unloaded, from a drawer and confronted him, pointing the weapon at his head.

"Let maming go or I'll shoot," she cried.

"Let maming or or I'll shoot, she cried.

"Let maming or or I'll shoot, she cried.

"Let maming a proof in the printing of the weapon at his head.

"Let maming or or I'll shoot, she cried.

"Let maming a proof i'll shoot, she cried.

"Let maming or or I'll shoot, she cried.

"Let maming or or I'll shoot, she cried.

"Let maming a proof I'll shoot, she cried.

"Let dared her to shoot, then turned on his wife again. The girl, dased with a shoot, reached the house. The proof of the shoot shoot, reached the house. The proof of the shoot shoot, reached the house. The burgian obeyed. Whispering to shoot, reached the house. Draw the should be shoot, reached the house. Draw the should be shoot, reached the house. Draw the shoot, reached the house. Draw the should be shoot, reached the house. Draw the shoot, rea

ON THE LAST DAY as she left court.

the project would be carried out point of view of the conferrees.

The Tribune to-night by

PAY AS YOU GO NOW THE ORDER FOR SING SING

Token Money System In-

INMATES TO SETTLE

Will Receive $1 a Day for Work Thriftless Must Sacrifice

There was one negro at Sing Sing yesterday who was filled with specia white man whose apathy shall be told about later, everyone else was filled with a grand new joy. For it was pay day at the prison and $3,000 worth of prison money went into circulation. But the negro expressed himself in the Warden Elihu Church:

"Boss, if you hadn't taken mah bones away. Ah'd own all de money in dis prison befo' night. Lawd, Ah wish Ah could git inter a lil crap game with dese white boys Ah'd take all dis

These pining words gave Mr. Church of social morality into the inmates.

Bind Burglar with Clothes-Red Bank, N. J., Oct. 9.- How the three Walling sisters, all deaf and ranging in ages from fifty to seventy ranging in ages from fifty to seventy. in a way 't couldn't in the great outcaptured a burglar who entered their side world. ome in New Monmouth last night, "These men are paid $1 a day is accused. In default of bail Jus- | ble with om. He would become a rub-e. The prison community ort him, and that means there

For years the Waining sold in would have to lived apart from the community life in would have to live a loaded shotgun. "And there

The three retired at 9 o'clock last night. It was about 1 o'clock this morning when one of the sisters was awakened by a noise in her room.

Problems for Welfare League.

"Anti-social acts on the part of the individual will give rise to problems that will have to be worked out and olved through the Mutual Welfare awakened by a noise in her room. TO SAVE MOTHER awakened by a noise in her room.

Trembling, she raised herself up on one elbow and peeked over the foot of problems that society outside is work

If a clever clerk ever tried to distract your attention from something in the window-told you that they didn't have your size, for instance, and offered you a substitute, didn't you scent deception? Of course you did. Adams writes this morning on that interesting practice. He had to raise a lot of rows, but he got the facts and some remarkable values. Read it-on

The Sunday Tribune

Germans Take Belgrade;

troduced to Teach Prisoners Responsibility.

FOR BEDS AND BOARD

Comforts.

a text to point out the significance of effect at Sing Sing yesterday, for upon the absence of Warden Osborne. In- warfare. that money is the root of all evil, nd Church showed now Mr. Osborne behis reforms in inculcating a sense contested height near Leintrey.

Shows Cause and Effect.

"It is, to my mind, the most inter- lows: esting sociological experiment going on in the world," Mr. Church said. "With these fifteen hundred men penned with-token money. They are charged for the bed. Sure enough, the figure of a man was silhouetted aginst the curtain in the moonlight. Her first thought was: "I must go and tell Nettie." The intruder made no attempt to stop her with the nutting into effect of the mituder made no attempt to stop her the stop Mr. Church made clear.

Adams on Window-Bait

Loos.
In Champagne the French attacked Empty Trains Crash on Third Avenue

First to Last-The Truth: News-Editorials-Advertisements

Continued on page 2, column 6

Massed Artillery Column Threatens Orient Road

GERMANS RENEW ATTACK ON LOOS Amsterdam (via London), Oct. 9 IN DENSE RANKS

Allies Lose "Heavily" Near Vermelles, Says Berlin Report.

HILL IN LORRAINE WON BY TEUTONS

following sorrowful strain to Deputy Trench Warfare Resumed in Champagne-Invaders' Drive at Tahure Fails.

> London, Oct. 9 .- A renewal of the German attacks on the Allied trenches before Loos is reported in the official fice in Paris to-night. These attacks back to their own trenches.

In Champagne the fighting seems to have resumed the character of trench A strong counter-attack in Lorraine the French succeeded in regaining a trench which they lost to the Germans the day before. The Gereves it will be the most potent factor mans record the capture of a much newed their attacks against our trenches before Loos. They were driven back to the trenches which the whole front in Artois.

FRENCH OFFICIAL

Tahure hill, and dispersed enemy concentrations which appeared to be preparing for a new attempt. A struggle with bombs and torpeioes has been in progress in the Ar-conne in the region of Four-de-Paris, on the heights of the Meuse, at the Calonne trench and at Les Eparges. Lorraine we reconquered as the where the enemy had been to maintain himself following stack of yesterday on the Reil-

The assault was made by three successive and very dense formations of men, followed by detachments in column form. All these troops were cut down by the combined fire of our infantry, our machine gans and our artillery. Only a few detachments of the Germans were successful in securing a footing in a trench recently conquered by us between Loo and the roadway from Lens to Bethune. Other local attacks, but equaling these invisions have less remarks of colonial infantry. Later the remainis of the legion were relieved and taken to the rear, and Genet turned up at the cantonment.

Paul Pavelka and Frank Musgrave have leave also turned up, but William Dugan, the mining engineer, of Albany, are still missing. Dr. Wheeler's wound is so serious that it was feared yester day he would lose his leg, but the hospital doctors decided to-day that they would probably not have to ampurate it, where the British and French forces landed at Salonica are being the roadway from Leas to be dualing these in violence, have been repeated against our positions to the southeast of Neuville-St. Vaast, but they were completely repulsed. All the progress made by us in the last few days has been maintained.

cannonading, in which both sides took part, in the sector of Lisons, as well as in the region of Quenney eres and counter attack delivered last nottring parties of the element took part in an attack against our ad-ranced posts in the Forest of Parroy. All these endeavors were completely repulsed. On the front between Reillon and Leintrey one of these

GERMAN ROAD TO BOSPORUS OPEN SOON, TURKS THINK

-Fiery speeches were delivered by Enver Pacha, the Turkish Minister of War, and Halil Bey, President of the Council, in the Turkish Chamber of Deputies, on October 5, according to a delayed report published in to day's German newspapers. Fore casting the early establishment o direct communication with Constan tinople by the Central Powers, Halil Bey declared: 1 "The most important result of the war is that from the North Sea to the Indian Ocean a mighty group is being created which will forever maintain itself against British selfishness, French revenge, Russial ambition and Italian treachery.'

AMERICAN BLINDED IN WAR MARRIES

communication issued by the War Of- Washington Man Decorated by France for Bravery Weds French Woman in Paris.

> D. C., who lost his sight while fighting sistance still continues in the souththe French Foreign Legion, to-day ern part of the town. found consolation in marriage. In the presence of a large number of sightless man advance has occasioned some companions the American, who for his bravery received the coveted military medal usually reserved for the soldiers Rosseau, a native of the country he that the Serbs would attempt any of France, married Mile. Madeleine lost his aight in serving. The cere- prolonged defence of their capital,

A violent bombardment on both a hero of the fighting at Les Eparges. ides occurred this afternoon along also blind, married another French

Demonstrations by the enemy, consisting of artillery and rifle firing at the five roads to the east of Souchez and on the Aisne, near Godat, were arrested by our barrier fire, and were not followed by any infantry action. In Champagne we completely repelled a counter attack against the Tahure hill, and dispersed enemy woman. Amar was at Lyons in connection with the exposition there when the war began, and ne immediately enlisted to the war began, and ne immediately enlisted to

MISSING AMERICANS IN FRANCE REPORT

Frank Musgrave Unscathed.

(By Cable to The Tribune.)
Paris: Oct. 9. Some of the American ing after the recent Champagne offen- the union with Bulgars and Turks The reports issued earlier in the day
Paris indicate that the German Wheeler, who is at the American Hosses in the offensive of vesterday pital with a big hole in his right leg.

By massing heavy forces of artillegrants in the opinion of the positions of the Allies near pital with a big hole in his right leg. Loos were very heavy. The text of this statement is as follows:

| C. C. Genet, who says that at the best their great success against the Russian statement is as follows: The reports of last night set forth that the German losses in the offenive movement undertaken yesterdsy against Loos and the positions to the north and to the south of Loos actually held by our troops were very ally held by our troops were very all the legion were relieved a remove that at the best their great success against the Russians, and by sheer weight of shell fire overwhelm the Serbs. Generals von Gallwitz and von Koevess, commanding these operations, were conarranged in the responsibility of the charge he was knocked unconscious by an exploding shell. He is given by their great success against the Russians, and by sheer weight of shell fire overwhelm the Serbs. Generals von Gallwitz and von Koevess, commanding these operations, were con-

REVENTLOW DEFENDS

Business, He Declares.

Nouvron.
In the Champagne distrigt a Ger- "Tages Zeitung," in an article in that the Salonica railway bridge, near Deusper under the headline "The Uproar mirkapu, on the Salonica-Uskub line, night at a point to the east of the Navarin farm was definitely checked About 'the Armenian Atrocities' Be- has been blown up by the Bulgarians. Tahure consisted of a violent bombardment, coupled with the use of shells, which asphyxiated and clused irritation of the eyes.

On the western boundary of the argonne the activity of French batteries put an end to the German cannonaing directed against our trenches in the sector of St. Thomas In Lorraine several strong reconnoiting parties of the enemy took part in an attack against our attractives with a received with all means so that a renetition will be impossible, that does not constitute massacres nor attractives, but supply against the Austro-German invasion.

The main sections of two armies so that a renetition will be impossible, that does not constitute massacres nor attractives, but supply a measure of a trigues be suppressed with all means so that a renetition will be impossible, that does not constitute massacres nor attractives, but simply a measure of a quarter of the newly formed army group under Field Marshal von Mackensen have crossed the Save and Danube of the suppression of the newly formed army group under Field Marshal von Mackensen have crossed the Save and Danube of the suppression of the newly formed army group under Field Marshal von Mackensen have crossed the Save and Danube of the suppression of the newly formed army group under Field Marshal von Mackensen have crossed the Save and Danube of the suppression of the newly formed army group under Field Marshal von Mackensen have crossed the Save and Danube of the suppression o

Reillon and Leintrey one of these German attacking parties, after having secured a footing in one of our first line positions, was in part driven out.

There has been no notable incident on the remainder of the front.

GERMAN REPORT.

The following is to-day's official German consults of what the Turks do with their Armenians or what the German consults of what the German consults of the security of the securit

Northeast of Vermelies a strong British attack failed with heavy losses to the enemy. During a local German attack a little progress was made southwest of the village.

In Champagne the French attacked a position east of Navarin Farm after a few hours of artillery preparation and in certain places succeeded in penetrating our trenches. They were driven out again by our counter attacks, leaving one officer and one hundred men in our hands after a fruitless and sanguinary battle. In French Lorraine the French lost the much fought for hill of Leintrey. One officer, seventy men, one machine track within a foot or the edge of the government toward Bulgaria, trestle. Cently expressed The Premie Serbs Keep up House to House Fight in Capital.

VON GALLWITZ BLASTS WAY

Heavy Batteries Thrown Across Danube Advancing on Semendria.

GREEKS VEX SOFIA

Protest Against Allies Landing at Salonica as Breaking Agreement.

London, Oct. 9 .- Belgrade has fallen before the Teutonic invaders Serbia, it was officially announced from Berlin to-day. That the struggle for the capital is still going on from house to house is indicated in the War Office report, which says that, although the citadel and Joseph Amar, of Washington, palace have been taken by storm, re-While the swiftness of the Gersurprise here, the crossing of the mony took place in the Mayor's office which lies virtually under the domination of Austrian guns at Semlin. across the river. This is the second time Belgrade has been in hostile hands. After

Save and Danube having been forced only yesterday, it was not expected army of artillery under General von Gallwitz has forced crossings over the Danube at four points below Semendria, and has begun the march E. C. Genet, Paul Pavelka and scuthward. Semendria, lying below Belgrade, is the key to the important Morava River valley, down which the advance toward Nish and forces landed at Salonica are being rushed to oppose the Teuton assault. ARMENIAN SLAUGHTER The Serbs are masters of defensive warfare, and with the heavy guns War Measure, and Turkey's Own of the Germans crippled by mountain transport, the task is one to try Berlin, Oct. 9. Count Ernst von even Mackensen's genius. Reventlow, military writer for the The "Vossische Zeitung" reports that Navarin tarm was definitely checked by a curtain of artillery fire.

The only action undertaken by the senemy against the advances made by its jesterday to the southeast of a violent bombardment, coupled with the use of have crossed the Save and Danube rivers. After the German troops of the army of the Royal and Imperial infantry, General von Koevess, had captured Ziguner Island and the hills southwest of Belgrade, the army succeeded in bringing the greater performs.

Austrian troops stormed the citadel and the northern section of the town of Beigrade. German troops stornied the New Konak (the royal stormed the New Konak (the royal palace). The troops are penetrating further through the southern part of

The army of artillery, General von Gallwitz, has forced crossings over the Danube at four points on the section below Semendria, and is driving the enemy in front of it toward the south.

Bulgars Protest to Greece.

Bulgaria has protested to Greece against the landing of French and British troops at Salonica, according to a Central News dispatch from Solia. Premier Radoslavoff is reported to have nformed the Greek Minister that the feet from the wreck. The two cars in landing of the allied troops was not in collision were thrown across the south harmony with the attitude of the Greek cently expressed The Premier added

FAIR TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW.